You

You when used to hold — the door — for me, — now you can't wait to leave.

 Al — ways sen — ti — men — tal when — I think of how it was, used to send me flow-ers if you fucked up in my dreams. I love was sweet and new and we just could - n't get e - nough. The

A Am

E G#m

used to make you laugh with all the sil - ly shit I did,
 show - er, it re - minds me, you'd un - dress me with your eyes,

A Am

now you roll your eyes and walk a - way and shake your head. When the now you nev - er touch me and you tell me that you're tired. You know it

C#m G#m

spark has gone and the can-dles are out and the song is done and there's no more sound, gets so sad when it all goes bad and all you think a - bout is all the fun you've had.

A  B

whis - pers — turn to yell - ing and — I'm think - ing... How did we get — so mean? — all those — sor - rys ain't nev - er gon - na mean a — thing.

E  B

— How do we just — move on? — How do you feel — in the morn -

A  Am

- ing when it comes and ev - 'ry - thing's un - done. Is it 'cause we want to be free? — Well, that's — not me. —

E  B

— Nor - mal - ly I'm — so strong, — I just can't — wake up —
